Subject: Statement by President Juncker that Anglo-Saxon world would dismantle the euro area if Greece were to leave#

In a speech delivered at the Catholic University of Louvain on 4 May, President Juncker expressed concern that 'the Anglo-Saxon world' would do everything in its power to dismantle the euro area piece by piece. (Source: Euractiv)

Does the Commission share this view?

Can the President show Parliament any solid evidence in support of his assertion?

How will the Commission prevent Greece from holding the euro area to ransom if it cannot be allowed to leave?
