Subject: Involvement of firms from non-EU countries in public procurement procedures

Firms from non-EU countries take part in public procurement procedures - some of which are funded from the EU budget - in most cases on an equal footing with EU firms. Many of the bidders are Chinese firms.

1. How many public contracts in the EU and in third countries (excluding China) were awarded to Chinese firms in 2016?
2. How many public contracts in the EU and in third countries (excluding China) were awarded to Chinese firms in 2017?
3. What was the value of the contracts awarded?
