

Question for written answer P-003661/2018
to the Commission

Rule 130

William (The Earl of) Dartmouth (EFDD)

Subject: Use of Commission premises in London

On 13 June 2018, the Remain movement in the UK held a meeting at 32 Smith Square in London, which of course is the European Commission's Representation (as well as the European Parliament Liaison Office).

Is this normal practice? Can the Commission clarify on which terms the Commission lends its premises?