

Priority question for written answer P-005337/2020
to the Commission

Rule 138

Cornelia Ernst (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Pool of guest experts at Europol

Europol has plans to establish a 'law enforcement expert group', along the lines of the standing corps of Frontex, who could be deployed at the request of a Member State (Council Document 9658/19).

1. How big would the group be, and where would their families be based?
2. Under what circumstances would the police officers forming the group be deployed, at the request of a Member State?
3. Who are the 'Europol experts / special advisers' who would be deployed to Europol in addition to the seconded national experts?