The Commission is in close contact with the German authorities on this matter. It is for Member States to decide on the relevant measures concerning a company within its territory and assess if a specific measure involves State aid that needs to be notified to the Commission for assessment and clearance. If applicable, the Commission stands ready to urgently assess the compatibility of emergency measures with State aid rules in the context of the energy crisis resulting from Russia’s unjustified attack on Ukraine.