In the event of official parliamentary visits to third countries, the concrete arrangements are implemented by the European External Action Service, the EU Delegation and relevant bodies in the European Parliament or political groups in full respect for each other’s role and prerogatives.

The EU Delegation assists – if and where requested – in the preparation of the programme for visits. The scheduling programming, agendas or cancellation of any Parliament’s committee visit remain the competence of the committee itself.