Rule 138

Rasmus Andresen (Verts/ALE)

Subject: Future budgeting or replacement of Your Europe Advice service

It has emerged that the Commission's Directorate-General for Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs intends to terminate Your Europe Advice (YEA), which currently handles 30 000 individuals' requests for advice about their EU rights every year and provides free legal advice in response to over 20 000 of these enquiries (based on eligibility). YEA is highly appreciated by the users, as shown by their feedback.

How does the Commission intend to fill the gap resulting from the withdrawal of this service and otherwise inform people about their EU rights, in line with its obligations under the Treaties?
