Rule 138

Tom Vandenkendelaere (PPE)

Subject: Brexit Adjustment Reserve – distribution and use of resources

Since Regulation 2021/1755 establishing the Brexit Adjustment Reserve came into force in October 2021, the available resources of this support programme have been allocated to and distributed among Member States. On the ground, the first results are becoming visible.

1. When does the Commission plan to evaluate the implementation of the programme, either with a view to adjusting it or defining best practices for the future?
2. Is the Commission considering continuing with targeted funds to mitigate further effects of Brexit in the same affected Member States in the future?
