§ 23

First part

'Acknowledges the Commission Delegated Regulation of 3 November 2025 amending Delegated Regulation (EU) 2020/1818 as regards the definition of prohibited weapons, which replaces the concept of "controversial weapons" with that of "prohibited weapons" and was adopted as part of the defence readiness omnibus; highlights the fact that this definition is limited to those weapons expressly prohibited under binding international conventions; welcomes the legal clarifications included in the defence readiness omnibus and acknowledges their importance in achieving the EU's goals in defence financing;'

Second part

'calls on private financial actors to restrict their exclusions to this consolidated list and to publish their investment policies; proposes that the inclusion in EU financing of actors whose investment policies go beyond this exclusion be reviewed on a case-by-case basis;'

11. Digitalisation, artificial intelligence and algorithmic management in the workplace – shaping the future of work

Second part those words

§ 9

First part 'Calls on the Commission and Member States to continue monitoring the demand and supply on the labour market, and promote cooperation between educational institutions, employers and trade unions, in order to better anticipate the future skills needed to embrace the potential of digital transition; underlines a thorough skills assessment will help workers, employers and training providers identify upskilling and reskilling needs related to artificial intelligence and algorithmic management in the workplace; stresses that such an assessment should be practical, accessible and adapted to the specific realities of SMEs, and serve as a basis for targeted training programmes supported through existing Union and national funding;'
Second part 'welcomes the proposal for creating a European Skills Intelligence Observatory;'
Third part 'stresses that the current lack of disaggregated data regarding the prevalence and type of AI and algorithmic management systems deployed and the categories of workers subject to them hinders evidenced-based policy making, and urges the Commission to improve data collection in this area;'
