- First part* 'having regard to the decision of the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) of 19 December 2017 in Case A.R. and L.R. v Switzerland (22338/15),'
- Second part* 'which affirmed that comprehensive sexuality education pursues the legitimate aims of protecting public health, protecting children from sexual violence, and preparing them for social realities; therefore did not recognise an obligation on the part of Member States to allow parents to withdraw their children from such education,'

Citation 71

- First part* 'having regard to the ECtHR case Sh.D. and others v Greece, Austria, Croatia, Hungary, Northern Macedonia, Serbia and Slovenia,'
- Second part* 'which affirms that the child's extreme vulnerability should prevail over irregular status with necessary measures adopted to protect them and that authorities violated Article 5 by automatically applying the protective custody regime without considering any alternatives to detention or the requirement under EU law to avoid the detention of children,' recital N

- First part* Text as a whole excluding the words: 'whereas the fight against terrorism and counter-terrorism policies should not lead to general discrimination against certain communities;'
- Second part* those words

Recital Q

- First part* 'whereas the EU and the Member States have shared competencies in the area of housing;'
- Second part* 'whereas both a national and an EU level strategy is needed; whereas homelessness is a situation that deprives individuals of human rights, and is itself a violation of human rights; whereas there is a trend of rising evictions and homelessness across the EU;'

Recital Y

- First part* 'whereas acting police officers must always be identifiable in order to enable the investigations of possible excesses of use of force and national authorities must determine the associated responsibilities; whereas Member States have different thresholds for the use of force and weapons by law enforcement authorities for maintaining public order;'
- Second part* 'whereas several Member States, have adopted laws that could lead to disproportionate restrictions of the right to freedom of peaceful assembly;'

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘is concerned by the fact that young people in particular are being priced out of housing and deplores cases of discrimination by landlords and policies which cut housing benefits for young people;’

Second part those words

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘of all policies and initiatives’

Second part those words

First part ‘Calls for the quick adoption of the proposed 2008 Equal Treatment Directive, which is still awaiting approval by the Council, in order to close the current protection gap in the EU legal framework concerning non-discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, religion or belief, or sexual orientation in key areas of life, such as social protection, education and access to goods and services;’

Second part ‘calls on the Commission to actively fight segregation and discrimination, including by initiating infringement procedures to foster the effective application of the Framework Decision on combating certain forms of racism and xenophobia by means of criminal law; recalls that these measures should be accompanied by proper national integration strategies;’

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: ‘and stresses the need to strengthen and enlarge its mandate following a thorough impact assessment;’

Second part those words

§ 34

First part ‘Stresses that the saving of lives is a legal obligation under international law and EU law;’

Second part ‘condemns the intimidation, arrests and criminal proceedings initiated in some Member States against civil society organisations and individuals for providing humanitarian assistance to migrants, whose lives are at risk; calls on Member States to ensure that acts of humanitarian assistance are not criminalised in line with the UN Smuggling Protocol;’

- First part* 'Reiterates that immigration detention of children is never in the child's best interest in line with the New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants;'
- Second part* 'calls on the EU and the Member States to step up action to end the detention of children, particularly in the context of migration across the EU, and to work out community-based alternatives to detention, as well as prioritising integration, education and psychological support; stresses that an unaccompanied child is above all a child who is potentially in danger'
- Third part* 'and that child protection, rather than migration policies, must be the leading principle for Member States and the European Union when dealing with them, thus respecting the core principle of the child's best interests.'

ID:

Recital O

- First part* 'whereas the increased resort of states to new technology, such as predictive policing and the use of facial recognition, presents a number of risks,'
- Second part* 'in particular for racial minorities in Europe;'

recital AE

- First part* Text as a whole excluding the words: 'part of the EU's past, present and future and'
- Second part* those words

- First part* 'Recognises that the EU plays an important role in preventing poverty and social exclusion in the Member States; stresses the importance for the EU and its Member States to work out specific programmes aimed at ending child poverty, as special consideration must be given to the particular detrimental impact of poverty on the social, psychological and physical development of children; and the health implications for future adult generations; stresses that children are at a disproportionate risk of social and economic exclusion and experience the violation of their fundamental rights due to abuse, violence, exploitation, poverty, and all forms of social exclusion; stresses that poverty is by itself a form of social injustice, which is grounded in gender inequalities, discrimination and unequal chances to access goods and services; calls on the Commission and the Council to consider fundamental rights while making economic policy proposals and to ensure that human rights impact assessments are conducted in conjunction with any decisions on their adoption, in order to assess any potential adverse impacts on human rights;'
- Second part* 'calls on the Member States to guarantee access to health care, quality education and housing on an equal footing for all;'

- First part* Text as a whole excluding the word: 'forced' (before surrogacy)
- Second part* this word

- First part* 'Is deeply concerned about the increasingly shrinking space for independent civil society in some Member States, in particular for women's rights organisations, LGBTI organisations and human rights defenders, including unreasonable administrative burdens, decreasing financial support for conducting advocacy, as well as restrictions on freedom of assembly and organisation; condemns the restrictions in access to funding of civil society organisations which, in some Member States, has a more systemic aspect in the form of legal and policy changes and are severely affecting their work and legal standing;'
- Second part* 'calls upon the European Commission and the Council to increase EU support for civil society organisations defending the values of Article 2 TUE in the European Union through the Rights and Values Programme, the funding of which should be significant, as asked by the European Parliament;'

Amendment 26

- First part* 'Recalls that everyone has the right to life, as recognised by Article 2 of the Charter;'
- Second part* 'stresses that this right must be defended from the moment of conception;'

Amendment 64

- First part* 'Encourages the EU and the Member States to devote sufficient resources to undermining the business model of trafficking networks and smugglers, which routinely puts the most vulnerable groups such as children and women in life-threatening situations,'
- Second part* 'as well as to protecting many from the risk of setting out on dangerous and uncontrolled migration routes where they will not have access to official asylum procedure;'

Amendment 65

- First part* 'Emphasises the importance of rigorous management of the EU's external borders; stresses the need to address humanitarian issues affecting border control;'
- Second part* 'underlines that EU and national policies on migration must comply fully with the 1951 UN Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and its additional protocol;'

PPE, ID:

§ 31

- First part* 'Calls on the Commission and the Member States to implement the Recommendation of the Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights of June 2019 entitled 'Lives saved. Rights protected. Bridging the protection gap for refugees and migrants in the Mediterranean';'
- Second part* 'reiterates that safe and legal pathways for migration are the best way of avoiding loss of life;'
- Third part* 'urges Member States to intensify resettlement measures, put in place humanitarian corridors to the EU, and introduce the possibility to apply for humanitarian visas for asylum-seekers;'

Recital D

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: 'whereas access to abortion constitutes a human right, while the delaying and denying thereof constitute forms of gender-based violence and may amount to torture and/or cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment;'

Second part those words

Recital E

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: 'and safe and legal abortion'
Second part those words

recital P

First part 'whereas the ruling will become applicable upon its publication, which pursuant to Polish law is mandatory, and once published will result in an almost complete ban on the right to abortion in Poland,'

Second part 'criminalising abortion and leading to the expansion of clandestine, unsafe abortion and abortion tourism, which is only accessible to some, thus undermining women's health and rights and putting their lives at risk; whereas despite the ruling not having been published, many pregnant women who have been informed that there is a high probability of the foetus having a severe and irreversible abnormality or an incurable disease have had their access to legal abortion restricted;'

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: 'recalls that it has strongly criticised any legislative proposals or restrictions that aim to further prohibit and limit access to safe and legal abortion in Poland, which come close to banning access to abortion care in Poland'

Second part those words

First part 'Notes that restricting or banning the right to abortion by no means eliminates abortion, but merely pushes it underground, leading to an increase in unlawful, unsafe, clandestine and life-threatening abortions;'

Second part 'insists that the performance of an abortion should not be included in the criminal code, as this has a chilling effect on doctors who refrain from providing SRHR services out of fear of criminal sanctions;'

§ 12

First part Text as a whole excluding the words: 'the liberalisation of the right to abortion'

Second part those words

First part 'Highlights the expressions of support for and interest in the cause of Polish women from many Member States;'

Second part 'calls for the EU to fund organisations that facilitate cross-border cooperation between organisations providing safe and legal abortion;'

- First part* 'Calls on the Commission to confirm the application of Directive 2004/113/EC to SRHR goods and services and recognise that limits on and barriers to accessing SRHR goods and services constitute gender-based discrimination, as they disproportionately affect one gender (women) or vulnerable groups (e.g. trans and non-binary persons);'
- Second part* 'condemns the Polish Government's abuse of the judiciary and its legislative powers to instrumentalise and politicise the lives and health of women and LGBTI+ persons, leading to their discrimination in this regard;'

Miscellaneous

The PPE Group had withdrawn its motion for a resolution B9-0371/2020. Amendments 12 and 13 had been cancelled.
