Amendment 42

First part “alternative fuels” mean fuels or power sources which serve, at least partly, as a substitute for fossil oil sources in the energy supply to transport and which have the potential to contribute to its decarbonisation and enhance the environmental performance of the transport sector consisting of:
(a) electricity consumed in all types of electric vehicles;
(b) hydrogen;
(c) natural gas, including biomethane, in gaseous form (Compressed Natural Gas — CNG) and liquefied form (Liquefied Natural Gas — LNG);
(d) Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG);
(e) mechanical energy from on-board storage/on-board sources, including waste heat;’
Second part ‘(f) any other ‘CO2 neutral fuel’ that means all fuels defined by Directive (EU) 2018/2001 where the emissions of the fuel in use (eu) can be taken to be net zero, meaning for instance that the CO2 equivalent of the carbon incorporated in the chemical composition of the fuel in use (eu) is of biogenic origin and/or has been captured, so avoiding being emitted as CO2 into the atmosphere, or has been captured from ambient air including:
(i) renewable and/or synthetic fuels, such as biofuel, biogas, biomass fuel, renewable liquid and gaseous transport fuel of non- biological origin (RFNBO) or a recycled carbon fuel (RCF);
(ii) other fuels not listed in Directive (EU) 2018/2001 may fall within the meaning of CO2 neutral fuel provided that they meet those criteria and the sustainability criteria of that Directive and associated delegated acts; and
(iii) a mixture of two or more CO2 neutral fuels shall be considered to be a CO2 neutral fuel;’

Amendment 271

First part	'Article 16a Instructors 1. Member States shall establish, without prejudice to the options already existing in their national systems for the rest of the driving learning period, a minimum amount of hours of driving instruction, both theoretical and practical, by a professional instructor prior to the respective tests.'
Second part	'This professional driving instruction shall incorporate the basics of first aid on the road, including CPR, as well as adequate notions of eco-driving and safe interaction with vulnerable users. Member States may alternatively establish the option of omitting the first aid instruction part, provided a certified first aid practical training, which shall include CPR, has been completed.' without the words: 'as well as adequate notions of eco-driving and safe interaction with vulnerable users'
Third part	'as well as adequate notions of eco-driving and safe interaction with vulnerable users'
Fourth part	'2. Driving instructors shall meet minimum standards. By 2 years after the entry into force of this directive, the Commission shall adopt delegated acts, in accordance with Article 21, in order to lay down specific requirements with regard to instruction, which shall encompass at least: (a) required competences for driving instructors; (b) general conditions; (c) initial qualifications; (d) quality guarantee and lifelong learning; (e) acquired rights; The Commission may subsequently amend those delegated acts in order to take account of technical, operational or scientific developments. 3. Driving instructors already working as such before [...the entry into force of this Directive] shall be subject only to the requirements concerning quality assurance and regular periodic training measures.' without the words: 'By 2 years after the entry into force of this directive, the Commission shall adopt delegated acts, in accordance with Article 21, in order to lay down specific requirements with regard to instruction' and 'The Commission may subsequently amend those delegated acts in order to take account of technical, operational or scientific developments.'
Fifth part	'By 2 years after the entry into force of this directive, the Commission shall adopt delegated acts, in accordance with Article 21, in order to lay down specific requirements with regard to instruction' and 'The Commission may subsequently amend those delegated acts in order to take account of technical, operational or scientific developments.'

Amendment 322

First part	'In Article 5, paragraph 3, point a is replaced by following: '(a) from the age of 21.'
Second part	'(i) a vehicle in driving licence categories D and D + E provided that they hold a CPC as referred to in Article 6(2).'
Third part	'Any Member State may authorise drivers of vehicles in driving licence categories D1 and D1 + E to drive such vehicles within its territory from the age of 18, provided that they hold a CPC as referred to in Article 6(1).'
Fourth part	'Any Member State may lower the minimum age for categories D and DE for professional bus and coach drivers to:'
Fifth part	'- 19 years on their territory, provided that drivers have undergone a full professional training and are holders of CPC in accordance with Article 6(1), of Directive (EU) 2022/2561;'
Sixth part	'- 18 years on their territory, provided that drivers have undergone a full professional training and are holders of CPC in accordance with Article 6(1), of Directive (EU) 2022/2561, and drive such vehicles without passengers or on lines of less than 50 km with passengers.'
Seventh part	'(ii) a vehicle in driving licence categories D and D + E, provided that they hold a CPC as referred to in Article 6(1).'
Eighth part	'Any Member State may lower the minimum age for categories D and DE for professional bus and coach drivers to: - 19 years on their territory, provided that drivers have undergone a full professional training and are holders of CPC in accordance with Article 6(1), of Directive (EU) 2022/2561; - 18 years on their territory, provided that drivers have undergone a full professional training and are holders of CPC in accordance with Article 6(1), of Directive (EU) 2022/2561, and drive such vehicles without passengers or on lines of less than 50 km with passengers.'

Amendment 59

First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'Without prejudice to the provisions of type-approval rules for the vehicles concerned, motor vehicles in categories referred to in points (a) and (b) may be combined with a trailer with a maximum authorised mass not exceeding half the weight of the towing vehicle's unladen mass;'
Second part	those words

Amendment 243

First part 'Currently, when issuing driving licences for group 1, namely for drivers of vehicles of categories A, A1, A2, AM, B, B1 and BE, most Member States established some form of fitness check to drive, beyond the eyesight test.'

Second part 'Such check may vary from a self-assessment form, to a medical examination carried out by general practitioner or a specialist doctor or a testing centre. When renewing driving licences for group 1, few Member States require a medical examination. There are also few Member States that have established a national mechanism for reporting significant changes in the fitness to drive. In general, when issuing and renewing driving licences for group 2, namely for drivers of vehicles of categories C, CE, C1, C1E, D, DE, D1 and D1E, the requirements are more stringent and detailed by mandating a medical examination.'

Amendment 244

First part Text as a whole without the words: 'may' (1st and 2nd occurrence)
 Second part 'may' (1st occurrence)
 Third part 'may' (2nd occurrence)

Amendment 256

First part 'While respecting the principle of subsidiarity, when renewing driving licences in categories AM, A, A1, A2, B, B1, BE and T Member States may require an examination applying the minimum standards of fitness for driving set out in Annex III' without the word: 'may'

Second part 'may'

Third part 'or the self-assessment laid down in point 3 of that Annex or any other form of assessment to drive in accordance with the national system in place in the Member State of normal residence. They shall inform the Commission thereof.'

First part	'whereas Regulation (EC) 1049/2001 codifies EU lawful residents' right of public access to documents, and also provides for the possibility of granting document access to individuals residing outside the EU;'
Second part	'whereas Frontex restricts access to its documents to EU or Schengen country nationals or residents, including legal persons residing or having a registered office in these countries, even though it is increasingly active, in some cases with executive powers and a mandate to use force, in non-EU territory; whereas it is almost exclusively non-EU citizens or residents who are affected by Frontex's actions in third countries; whereas civil society organisations in Senegal face difficulties in accessing information on the possible status agreement;'
§ 2
First part	'acknowledges, despite the country's difficult human rights situation, the efforts by the Senegalese Government to uphold or improve human rights, through its active membership of the UN Human Rights Council between 2018 and 2023;'
Second part	'expresses its concern about the increasing reports of human rights violations in Senegal, specifically those concerning the use of force or abuse of migrants during border control checks and the increased criminalisation of civil society; highlights and condemns the repeated pushbacks of migrants and refugees from the Mauritanian and Mali borders to Senegal; reiterates and underlines that Frontex should not take part in any form of pushbacks; considers that the possible conclusion of a status agreement between the EU and Senegal providing for the exercise of executive powers by Frontex in the country would entail a high risk for Frontex of becoming complicit in direct and indirect violations of fundamental rights or international protection obligations; believes that these risks are of a serious nature and are likely to persist;'

First part 'Is concerned that the illegal, unprovoked and unjustified Russian war of aggression against Ukraine, enabled and supported by the illegitimate Lukashenka regime in Belarus and the regime in Iran, has brought war back to the European continent;'

Second part 'reiterates its condemnation, in the strongest possible terms, of the actions of the Russian leadership, which include breaking international law, violating recognised borders, unlawfully transferring and deporting protected persons and children and committing land theft and serious war crimes; demands that Russia and its proxy forces cease all military action and that the Russian leadership immediately and unconditionally withdraw its troops from the internationally recognised territory of Ukraine and from any other country whose territory, or parts thereof, it unlawfully occupies; condemns any hybrid attacks used by Russia in Ukraine and strongly denounces the spread of Russia's propaganda about its war in Ukraine;'

§ 27 introductory part

First part Text as a whole without the words: 'reiterates its call for the Council to gradually switch to qualified majority voting'

Second part those words

§ 56

First part	'Condemns the Lukashenka regime's active role in supporting Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine;'
Second part	'emphasises the urgent need for the mirroring of sanctions between Belarus and Russia, with Lukashenka's regime being fully complicit in the war crimes committed, such as the abduction of thousands of Ukrainian children;'
§ 118
First part	'Takes note of the summit on 17 and 18 July 2023 between the EU and the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States and hopes that it will improve bi-regional relations, particularly given the growing influence of China and Russia in Latin America and the Caribbean; calls on the Member States and the EEAS to pursue proactive diplomacy in the region, with a strong emphasis on defending the multilateral global order, international law and respect for democracy and human rights; welcomes the conclusion of negotiations on the EU-Chile Advanced Framework Agreement and calls for progress to be made towards the signing and ratification of the EU-Mexico Association Agreement;'
Second part	'calls on the Commission and the Spanish and Belgian Council Presidencies to advance decisively and conclude the agreement with Mercosur before the end of the current parliamentary term, while keeping the highest level of ambition in relation to the enforcement of its sustainability provisions; also recalls the need to finalise the ratification of the EU-Central America Association Agreement;'
Amendment 126
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'in this context' and 'as it stands'
Second part	'in this context'
Third part	'as it stands'
S&D:
Amendment 31
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'the deliberate targeting of UN workers, journalists, doctors, artists and all civilians'
Second part	those words
Amendment 32
First part	'Stresses that the interim ruling issued by the International Court of Justice (ICJ) – the highest UN court – states that there is plausible evidence to investigate Israel for genocide and calls on Israel to take steps to prevent this genocide;'
Second part	'calls on the Member States to support the ICJ and to demand that Israel immediately comply with the legally binding orders issued by the court;'
Amendment 60
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'provided that all hostages are immediately and unconditionally released and that the terrorist organisation Hamas is dismantled', 'which is aggravated by the confiscation of humanitarian aid by the terrorist organisation Hamas', 'expresses concern about the death toll of civilians who are used as human shields, in particular children;'
Second part	'provided that all hostages are immediately and unconditionally released and that the terrorist organisation Hamas is dismantled'
Third part	'which is aggravated by the confiscation of humanitarian aid by the terrorist organisation Hamas'
Fourth part	'expresses concern about the death toll of civilians who are used as human shields, in particular children;'
Amendment 72
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'strongly condemns, in this light, that the Cuban regime denied a delegation from the European Parliament to visit the country;'
Second part	those words
Amendment 97
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'to regain, by force, control over its internationally recognised territory of' and 'with the exodus of the Armenian population from this territory'
Second part	those words
Amendment 117

First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'regrets that Azerbaijan chose a military solution over diplomacy with regard to Nagorno-Karabakh, while recognising that Nagorno-Karabakh is internationally recognised as Azerbaijani territory' and 'which led to the exodus of Armenian people'
Second part	those words
Amendment 123
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'and religious' and 'for'
Second part	those words
ID:
Amendment 125
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'undermining the necessary conditions to implement the Green Deal in the agricultural sector'
Second part	those words
PPE:
§ 9
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'institutional and decision-making'
Second part	those words
§ 65
First part	'Welcomes the Commission's recommendation to the Council to open accession negotiations with Ukraine and the Republic of Moldova; calls on the Council to adopt the negotiation framework once Ukraine and Moldova have advanced on pending laws on anti-corruption and the verification of assets and undertaken further steps on de-oligarchisation; takes positive note of the recommendation to also open accession negotiations with Bosnia and Herzegovina once the necessary degree of compliance with the membership criteria is achieved;'
Second part	'welcomes Kosovo's application for EU membership and asks the Commission to respond to it; recalls that Kosovo's bid to be considered a candidate country will be assessed on the basis of its own merits and of its success in meeting the Copenhagen criteria for EU membership; welcomes, however, the lifting of visa requirements for Kosovo citizens, which will enter into force no later than January 2024;'
§ 89
First part	'Reiterates its unwavering support for a negotiated two-state solution for Israel and Palestine on the basis of the 1967 borders, with two sovereign, democratic states as peaceful neighbours and with Jerusalem as their shared capital; encourages the EEAS and the Member States to take a European initiative to put the two-state solution back on track; recalls that settlements in the occupied Palestinian territories are illegal under international law; call for an immediate end to the settlement policy, which is a major impediment to the viability of the two-state solution;'
Second part	'emphasises that continued support to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East remains a key element of the EU strategy for contributing to stability and peace in the Middle East;'
Amendment 2
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'urges the EU's military mission to actively prevent unlawful parades and other provocations as well as threats against everyone working to help the victims of genocide and investing in inter-ethnic reconciliation and a peaceful future for the country;'
Second part	those words
Amendment 7
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'by the summer of 2024, the conclusions on'
Second part	those words
Amendment 24
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'condemns the Israeli military's disproportionate response, which has caused a civilian death toll of unprecedented scale;' and 'a permanent ceasefire'
Second part	those words
Amendment 45

First part	Text as a whole without the words: ‘and for the Palestinian civilians in the Gaza Strip, who are suffering from devastating bombings and unprecedented numbers of casualties;’, ‘in the case concerning the Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide in the Gaza Strip;’, ‘the magnitude of civilian casualties due to Israel’s disproportionate military response; urgently’, ‘an immediate and permanent’, ‘to respond to the catastrophic levels of food insecurity, the risk of famine and the spread of disease;’ ‘that would worsen an already catastrophic humanitarian situation and prevent the urgently needed provision of basic services and humanitarian assistance;’
Second part	‘and for the Palestinian civilians in the Gaza Strip, who are suffering from devastating bombings and unprecedented numbers of casualties;’
Third part	‘in the case concerning the Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide in the Gaza Strip;’
Fourth part	‘the magnitude of civilian casualties due to Israel’s disproportionate military response; urgently’
Fifth part	‘an immediate and permanent’
Sixth part	‘to respond to the catastrophic levels of food insecurity, the risk of famine and the spread of disease’
Seventh part	‘that would worsen an already catastrophic humanitarian situation and prevent the urgently needed provision of basic services and humanitarian assistance’
Amendment 46
First part	‘whereas the terrorist attacks by Hamas against Israel have highlighted the volatile and dynamic security situation in the Middle East and the need for the EU and other international actors to assume greater responsibility and assist governments and civil society organisations of the region with reaching a durable and sustainable peace, in particular by continuing to support a two-state solution between Israel and Palestine; whereas on 7 October 2023, 1 139 Israelis and foreign citizens were killed and 240 people were taken hostage during the despicable terrorist attack by Hamas; whereas tens of thousands of innocent Palestinians and hundreds of UN staff, medical personnel and journalists have been killed in the Gaza Strip as a result of the Israeli Government’s response;’
Second part	‘whereas the continuous bombardment and forced evacuation of Palestinians to the south of the Gaza Strip have created a dire and rapidly deteriorating humanitarian situation; whereas attacks by Israeli forces and settlers have killed at least 330 Palestinians in the West Bank since 7 October 2023; whereas the International Court of Justice, in its interim ruling, ordered Israel to implement provisional measures in the case Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide in the Gaza Strip (South Africa v Israel);’
Amendment 47
First part	‘takes note with concern of the recent allegations made by Israel against 12 staff members of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA); welcomes the UN’s immediate and determined response to the allegations, including the immediate dismissal of the employees in question and the launching of two separate investigations into the matter by the United Nations Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) and the independent review group led by former French Minister Catherine Colonna and three European organisations; calls on Israel, in this regard, to cooperate closely and provide all necessary evidence to the OIOS and the independent review group;’
Second part	‘welcomes the Commission’s decision not to suspend funding to UNRWA before the UN has announced the outcome of the investigations and the actions it will take; urges all donor countries which have suspended their funding to UNRWA owing to the allegations to reconsider their decision in the light of UNRWA’s immediate response to the allegations and its crucial role of delivering life-saving assistance to the two million people in the Gaza Strip who depend on it for their survival amid one of the largest and most complex humanitarian crises in the world;’
Amendment 106
First part	Text as a whole without the words: ‘defence and’
Second part	those words

Miscellaneous

Fabio Massimo Castaldo had moved the following oral amendment to add a new recital after recital K: 'whereas there is a need for a comprehensive peace-building approach involving civilian specialists in order to implement practical measures for peace;' 'whereas local and international nongovernmental organisations perform crucial activities aimed at preventing conflicts and resolving conflicts peacefully, and it is of the utmost importance to make the most of their experience;'

Reinhard Bütikofer had moved the following oral amendment to add a new paragraph after paragraph 57:

'Is strongly concerned about a public statement from President Vučić in February 2024 explicitly endorsing possible military measures from the PRC against Taiwan in contradiction to the EU's policy supporting the status quo in the Taiwan Strait and warning against unilateral measures, in particular by force or coercion;'

David McAllister had moved the following oral amendments to amendments 44 and 58:

'Welcomes the partial de-escalation of tensions in the East Mediterranean and Aegean and calls on Türkiye to work on a constructive, and not assertive or aggressive, approach with its partners in these regions;'

'welcomes, in this regard, Türkiye's and Hungary's long-delayed decision to finally approve Sweden's accession to NATO and urges the Turkish national authorities to cooperate closely with the EU's Sanctions Envoy;'

PPE:
Amendment 24
First part	'whereas on 7 October 2023, 1 139 Israelis and foreign citizens were killed and 240 people were taken hostage during the despicable terrorist attack by Hamas;'
Second part	'whereas tens of thousands of innocent Palestinians and hundreds of UN staff, medical personnel and journalists have been killed in the Gaza Strip as a result of the Israeli Government's response;'
Third part	'whereas the continuous bombardment and forced evacuation of Palestinians to the south of the Gaza Strip have created a dire and rapidly deteriorating humanitarian situation;'
Fourth part	'whereas attacks by Israeli forces and settlers have killed at least 330 Palestinians in the West Bank since 7 October 2023;'
Fifth part	'whereas the International Court of Justice, in its interim ruling, ordered Israel to implement provisional measures in the case Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide in the Gaza Strip (South Africa v Israel);'
Amendment 27
First part	'and for the Palestinian civilians in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank;'
Second part	'stresses that all parties must distinguish, at all times, between combatants and civilians and that parties may only attack combatants and military targets;'
Third part	'urgently calls for an immediate and permanent ceasefire and continued, rapid, safe and unhindered humanitarian access and aid to reach those in need through all necessary measures including humanitarian corridors, in the light of the catastrophic levels of food insecurity, the risk of famine and the spread of diseases'
Fourth part	'is deeply concerned by the magnitude of civilian casualties in the Gaza Strip, owing to Israel's disproportionate military response;'
Fifth part	'asks the Israeli Government not to take military action in Rafah that would worsen an already catastrophic humanitarian situation and prevent the urgently needed provision of basic services and humanitarian assistance;'
Sixth part	'calls for a thorough investigation into the role played by third states, including Iran and Qatar, and non-state entities in providing financial, material and operational support to Hamas;'

Miscellaneous

Amendments 86 and 44 had been withdrawn.

Sven Mikser had moved the following oral amendment to paragraph 96:

'Welcomes the accession of Finland to NATO; strongly deplores the delaying of the ratification of Sweden's NATO accession; denounces, in this context, further, attempts to undermine democratic freedoms in EU Member States through the instrumentalisation of granting consent to Sweden's accession to NATO; welcomes, in this regard, Türkiye's and Hungary's long-delayed decision to approve Sweden's accession to NATO; urges the Turkish authorities to deliver on their promise of a more constructive partnership in NATO, including in the Eastern Mediterranean;'
