Paragraph 11

Joint motion for a resolution

11. Calls for the Union and its Member States to establish access to fair and efficient asylum procedures for those who may be in need of international protection, based on the understanding that disembarkation does not necessarily imply sole responsibility on the part of the state on whose territory people rescued at sea are disembarked;

Amendment

11. Calls for the Union and its Member States to establish profiling and referral mechanisms, including access to fair and efficient asylum procedures for those who may be in need of international protection, based on the understanding that disembarkation does not necessarily imply sole responsibility on the part of the state on whose territory people rescued at sea are disembarked;

Paragraph 12 a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

12a. Calls on the Member States to consider, where necessary, applying Article 3(2) of Regulation 604/2013¹ in order to assume responsibility for the asylum claims of people who are at risk of being unable to enjoy access to their rights in any Member State unable to fulfil its obligations; affirms that, similarly, the Member States should consider applying Article 15 of the aforementioned regulation in order to bring extended family members together;
