9.3.2022

Amendment 1
Pernando Barrena Arza
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Recital R a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ra. whereas gas revenues are the military’s largest source of foreign currency income, adding up to an estimated USD 1 billion annually in duties, taxes, royalties, fees, tariffs, and other profits; whereas 19 internationally operating banks have invested over USD 65 billion in 18 companies that have direct and longstanding commercial ties either to Myanmar’s military or to state entities that the military is attempting to control as a result of the coup;

Or. en
Amendment 2

Pernando Barrena Arza
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 13 a (new)

   Joint motion for a resolution

13a. Calls on EU-based undertakings, including parent holdings and subsidiaries, to urgently suspend any relationships with companies linked to the Myanmar military; asks for payments to the junta and state-owned enterprises from foreign-financed oil and gas projects, such as those operated by Italy’s Eni, France’s Total, and The Netherlands’ Shell, to be blocked; calls on banks to act by divesting from companies linked to the military;

   Amendment

Or. en
9.3.2022

Amendment 3
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Recital V a (new)

Amendment

Va. whereas in January 2022, a coalition of 200 organisations requested that international institutions and governments adopt comprehensive economic sanctions;

Or. en
Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment 4

Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution

Paragraph 5

5. Reiterates its condemnation of these human rights violations and the systematic and widespread attacks against the Rohingya population; underlines that the EU will continue to closely monitor the actions of the military leadership against minorities in the country, including the Rohingya;

Amendment

5. Reiterates its strong condemnation of all past and present human rights violations and the systematic and widespread attacks against the Rohingya population, including killings, harassment, rape and the destruction of property, which, according to the records of the Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on Myanmar and the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, amount to genocide, war crimes and crimes against humanity, perpetrated by the armed forces; underlines that the EU will continue to closely monitor the actions of the military leadership against minorities in the country, including the Rohingya;
Amendment 5
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT

Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 6

6. Condemns the persecution of Christians in the country; urges the Tatmadaw to stop killing and arresting Christians and to end the shelling and raiding of churches; stresses that the international community has expressed deep concerns about the violent targeting of Christian communities in Myanmar;

Amendment
6. Condemns the persecution of all minorities in the country; urges the Tatmadaw to stop killing and arresting Christians and to end the shelling and raiding of churches; stresses that the international community has expressed deep concerns about the violent targeting of minority communities in Myanmar;

Or. en
9. Condemns the increase in labour rights violations, notably in the garment sectors, and the attacks against and abuse of trade unions and labour rights defenders; calls for an immediate end to the violence against labourers and unions, and for the rights of unions and their members to be protected, including the right to operate freely;

9. Notes that 220 000 workers in the garment sector have lost their jobs, according to the International Labour Organization assessment on unemployment, and 140 factories have closed temporarily without making any salary or compensation payments to their workers; recalls that workers are entitled to receive compensation for the temporary closure of their factories; condemns the increase in labour rights violations, notably in the garment sectors, and the attacks against and abuse of trade unions and labour rights defenders; calls for an immediate end to the violence against labourers and unions, and for the rights of unions and their members to be protected, including the right to operate freely;

Or. en
9.3.2022

Amendment 7
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 10 a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

10a. Condemns all brands that have provided lists of trade union members, their contact numbers and addresses, and photos of trade union leaders to the military and police; notes that the military have used these lists to issue arrest warrants against trade union leaders and declare their passports void; notes that many suppliers of big European brands are present in Myanmar, such as H&M, Zara, Kiabi, Mango, Regatta, Skims, Tchibo, Guess, Adidas and Primark; declares that this situation may amount to collaboration by European brands with an illegitimate military government;

Or. en
Amendment 8
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 18

18. Welcomes the four rounds of EU sanctions over the military coup and subsequent repression; urges the Council to include the State Administrative Council (SAC) as an entity instead of its individual members on the list of natural and legal persons, entities and bodies subject to restrictive measures; welcomes the decision by the EU to add MOGE to the list of sanctioned entities; calls on the Council to reverse the derogation explicitly allowing EU oil and gas operators remaining in Myanmar to pursue financial transactions with MOGE and urges Member States to refrain from implementing the derogation; urges the Commission and EU Member States to ensure that the withdrawal of EU companies complying with sanctions does not benefit the junta, in line with the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, including by clarifying that companies’ shares cannot be sold or transferred to MOGE or other junta enterprises under the enforcement of sanctions; highlights that further international coordination with like-minded jurisdictions is essential; calls on the Council also to target the central bank reserves in a further round of sanctions; stresses that this would require imposing asset freezes and bans on international financial transfers on the two state-owned banks, Myanmar Foreign Trade Bank and Myanmar Investment and Commercial Bank; calls for an EU task force to ensure the effective implementation of the financial sanctions by identifying and freezing the assets of sanctioned individuals and companies held in the jurisdictions of the US, the EU, the UK, Canada, Australia, Japan or Singapore; calls for sanctions on additional Myanmar officials and elites and for combined efforts with countries with similar sets of sanctions to avoid circumvention by making sure sanctioned individuals and companies cannot hide their assets in jurisdictions across the world;
Amendment 9
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Paragraph 19 a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

19a. Calls for restrictive measures to prevent the Myanmar Central Bank from deploying its international reserves in ways that undermine the impact of the international financial sanctions;

Or. en
Amendment 10
Manuel Bompard
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, The LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 20 a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

20a. Urges the Commission and the Member States to adopt targeted import bans, exclusions from public procurement, suspensions of public support and other sanctions on undertakings that provide significant direct or indirect support to the Myanmar military;

Or. en