Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR, the LEFT
Myanmar, one year after the coup

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 21

21. Stresses that local and multinational businesses operating in Myanmar must respect human rights and stop enabling perpetrators of abuses; strongly urges EU-based businesses, in that sense, to ensure that they have no ties with Myanmar’s security forces, their individual members, or entities owned or controlled by them, and that they are not contributing, directly or indirectly, to the military’s crackdown on democracy and human rights;

Amendment
21. Underlines that the military takeover of Myanmar, the conflict in the country and the consequences of both seriously increase the risk of businesses operating in Myanmar causing, contributing or being directly linked to human rights violations; stresses that local and multinational businesses operating in Myanmar must respect human rights and stop enabling perpetrators of abuses; strongly urges EU-based businesses, in that sense, to ensure that they have no ties with Myanmar’s security forces, their individual members, or entities owned or controlled by them, and that they are not contributing, directly or indirectly, to the military’s crackdown on democracy and human rights; calls for the Commission and the Member States to assess and adopt appropriate measures to identify, prevent, cease, mitigate and remedy any potential or actual human rights violations that businesses operating in the EU might cause, contribute to or be directly linked to in Myanmar in light of the current situation; calls on the Commission and
