Amendment 1
Marc Botenga
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR
Russia’s escalation of its war of aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Recital Ka (new)

Ka. whereas since the start of the Russian invasion, Russia and Ukraine have had a number of diplomatic talks, which have yielded positive results as far as grain exports and prisoner exchanges are concerned; whereas the EU has not taken any significant diplomatic initiatives; whereas recent Ukrainian military advances, insistence from non-aligned countries as well as the upcoming winter have opened a fragile window for diplomacy;

Or. en
5.10.2022
B9-0430/2022 }
B9-0432/2022 }
B9-0433/2022 }
B9-0438/2022 }
B9-0446/2022 } RC1/Am. 2

Amendment 2

Clare Daly, Mick Wallace
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR

Russia’s escalation of its war of aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution

Paragraph -1 (new)

> Joint motion for a resolution

-1. Calls for the EU and the Member States to explore all potential avenues for peace and to pursue efforts to bring about an immediate end to the war;

Or. en
Amendment 3
Marc Botenga
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR
Russia’s escalation of its war of aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 3 a (new)

Joint motion for a resolution

Amendment

3a. Regrets the absence of EU diplomatic initiatives; calls for the EU to support and engage in negotiations and dialogue to achieve a ceasefire and a peaceful solution to the conflict, based on respect for Ukrainian territorial integrity and international law, and considering a certain degree of autonomy for regions, where appropriate, as well as neutral status for Ukraine, including strong security guarantees and collective security for all countries in the region;

Or. en
Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 12

12. Condemns the mobilisation in Russia, and calls for an immediate end to involuntary conscription; condemns the measures compelling residents of the temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine to serve in Russia’s armed or auxiliary forces, which is forbidden under the Fourth Geneva Convention; strongly appeals to all Russian people to avoid being dragged into this war, which violates international law and was therefore condemned by a large majority of countries, was only waged to assert a non-democratic kleptocratic regime in Russia, and will ultimately destroy the Russian economy and the Russian people’s prospects for a safe and prosperous future; urges the Member States to issue humanitarian visas to Russian citizens in need of protection, such as those subjected to political persecution;
United in diversity
Amendment 5
Malin Björk
on behalf of The Left Group

Joint motion for a resolution
PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, ECR
Russia’s escalation of its war of aggression against Ukraine

Joint motion for a resolution
Paragraph 17

17. Calls on the Commission, the EEAS and the Member States to increase support for and cooperation with civil society and the free media in Ukraine and Russia, to continue to provide temporary shelter in the EU for people fleeing the war, and to help with the issuance of temporary travel documents enabling Ukrainian citizens who are trapped in Russia without their identity or travel documents to leave the country if they wish to; condemns systematic attempts on the Russian side to slow down the entry of Ukrainian refugees to the EU on the Estonian and Latvian borders, which could soon lead to a major humanitarian crisis; calls on the Member States and their border control not to hinder such refugees from entering the EU;