Non-objection to a delegated act: exemption of the Bank of England from the pre- and post-trade transparency requirements in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014

European Parliament decision to raise no objections to the Commission delegated regulation of 30 January 2019 amending Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/1799 as regards the exemption of the Bank of England from the pre- and post-trade transparency requirements in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 (C(2019)00793 – 2019/2546(DEA))

The European Parliament,

- having regard to the Commission delegated regulation (C(2019)00793),
 - having regard to the Commission's letter of 30 January 2019 asking Parliament to declare that it will raise no objections to the delegated regulation,
 - having regard to the letter from the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs to the Chair of the Conference of Committee Chairs of 21 February 2019,
 - having regard to Article 290 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,
 - having regard to Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012¹, and in particular Articles 1(9) and 50(5) thereof,
 - having regard to the recommendation for a decision of the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs,
 - having regard to Rule 105(6) of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas the amending delegated act contains important amendments to ensure that the Bank of England will continue to benefit from the existing exemption in accordance with Article 1(9) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014, after a status change of the United Kingdom to a third country;
- B. whereas Parliament recognises the importance of a swift adoption of this act in order to
