Article 2 – paragraph 3

_text proposed by the Commission_

3. By September 2020, the Commission shall review the Union’s 2030 target for climate referred to in Article 2(11) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1999 in light of the climate-neutrality objective set out in Article 2(1), and explore options for a new 2030 target of 50 to 55% emission reductions compared to 1990. _Amendment_

3. The Commission shall review the Union’s 2030 target for climate referred to in Article 2(11) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1999 in light of the climate-neutrality objective set out in Article 2(1) and the effects of Covid-19 pandemic, and explore options for a new 2030 target of 50 to 55% emission reductions compared to 1990. The revision shall be based on a solid impact assessment, taking into account the social and economic effects of Covid-19 crisis as well as potential social impact of future measures. Where the Commission considers that it is necessary to amend that target, it shall make proposals to the European Parliament and to the Council as appropriate. The Commission shall also pursue in parallel efforts to develop a methodology to calculate life-cycle emissions for some products, in particular in the case of road vehicles, aircraft and vessels.

_Or. en_

Justification

The revision of the 2030 targets is foreseen only two years after the adoption of the existing climate targets. In order to ensure a clear legislative framework and to justify the new level of ambition, taking also into account the principles of Better Regulation, the revision of targets should be based on a solid impact assessment.

Johan Van Overtveldt

Proposal for a regulation
Article 3 – paragraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

1. The Commission is empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 9 to supplement this Regulation by setting out a trajectory at Union level to achieve the climate-neutrality objective set out in Article 2(1) until 2050. At the latest within six months after each global stocktake referred to in Article 14 of the Paris Agreement, the Commission shall review the trajectory.

Amendment

1. The Commission shall assess the options for a trajectory at Union level to achieve the climate-neutrality objective at EU level set out in Article 2(1) until 2050 and bring forward legislative proposals where appropriate. At the latest within six months after each global stocktake referred to in Article 14 of the Paris Agreement, the Commission shall review the trajectory and bring forward legislative proposals where appropriate.

Justification

The proposal of the Commission is unacceptable and sets aside the two co-legislators. The non-paper of the Legal Service clearly spells out the arguments against the delegation of power to the Commission for establishing a trajectory towards 2050.

4. The Commission shall assess any

Amendment

4. The Commission shall assess any draft measure or legislative proposal in light of the climate-neutrality objective set out in Article 2(1) as expressed by the trajectory referred to in Article 3(1) before adoption, and include this analysis in any impact assessment accompanying these measures or proposals, and make the result of that assessment public at the time of adoption.

Any impact assessment or analysis, with a view to the adoption of new measures, shall take into account the level of technical feasibility linked to the development of infrastructure for recharging alternative fuels. In all cases, they shall take into account the gaps and delays in European policy in terms of equipping the TEN-T network with alternative energy distribution points, without prejudicing and sanctioning the Member States.

Justification

The European Commission must take responsibility for the lack of necessary devices in sufficient numbers across the trans-European transport network (TEN-T), and not blame this responsibility on the Member States.

Amendment 373
Mario Furore, Laura Ferrara, Eleonora Evi, Tiziana Beghin, Rosa D'Amato

Proposal for a regulation
Article 5 – paragraph 4 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

4 a. In order to ensure continuous progress towards the achievement of climate neutrality set out in Articles 1 and 2, the Commission and the Member States shall fully take into account the obligations set out in the Article 3(b) of the Directive 2011/92/EU on the assessment of the effects of certain public and private projects on the environment as with a view to address the green house gas emissions of public and private projects during their whole life cycle, such as those occurring in the construction and operational phase and including indirect emissions in a project’s value chain. In addition, any energy and transport infrastructure projects shall, upon independent assessment, be deemed consistent with the 2030, 2050 and possibly 2040 climate objectives and coherent with the EU objective of building a fully renewables-based, highly resource and energy-efficient, climate-neutral and circular economy.

Or. en

Justification

Member States and the Commission should make sure that any current and upcoming infrastructure project is consistent with the European Green Deal and the climate neutrality objective. They should therefore abandon any project which lead to increasing GHG emissions and endanger the achievement of the EU climate objectives, such as the Lyon-Turin project. An independent assessment of the carbon footprint of major infrastructures during the construction and operational phases should be available before any final and irreversible decision to finance the projects is taken. Over a certain amount of emissions (1 million ton of CO2/a year) the project should be examed by the Panel in order to verify its consistency with the EU objectives.
