BAKU INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN FORUM

September 29 – 30, 2016

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

The Organizing Committee warmly welcomes the participants in the
V Baku International Humanitarian Forum

Dear Forum Participants,

Please read this booklet carefully! It provides information about the Forum, its draft agenda, registration process, services for participants, and the access procedure to the Forum's events.

I. ABOUT THE FORUM

The IV Baku International Humanitarian Forum will feature discussions on humanitarian problems, prospects and challenges in the 21st century in the realities of a globalizing world. Representing natural and social sciences as well as the cultural elite, the organizers of this Forum have set the ambitious task of forming a new humanitarian agenda for further consideration on an international scale.

The Forum will feature roundtable meetings on the following topics:

- Different Models of Multiculturalism: from Theory to Humanitarian Practice
- The Importance of Preserving the Human Capital in Conditions of Mass Migration as a Basis for Sustainable Development
- Transforming of Journalism for the Information Age and its Role in Ensuring Inter-Civilizational Dialogue
- Sustainable Development and Ecological Civilization
- Molecular Biology, Biophysics, Biotechnology and Issues of Personnel Training in Modern Medicine: Innovative and Ethical Problems
- Converging Technologies and Predictions for the Future: the Main Challenges of the 21st Century

A special publication with information on the participants and the problems to be discussed at the roundtable meetings will be issued by the beginning of the Forum.

Those who wish to publish their article in the Forum's annual collection should send the full text of the article, together with a short biography and photo (size 3x4cm in JPEG format), to the following e-mail address: articles@bakuforum.az. The soft copy of the article should be in MS Word format (minimum 20,000 – maximum 30,000 characters) and submitted in English or Russian by September 15, 2016.

The working languages of the Forum are Azerbaijani, English, and Russian.

Expenses of the participants (flight, accommodation, meals, airport transfers, and transportation in accordance with the official program) will be covered by the Organizing Committee.

II. THE PROGRAM OF THE FORUM

The preliminary program of the Forum is available at www.bakuforum.az
