- 3.

(I) Any additional information I wish to give<sup>3</sup>:

With reference to section (E) I receive occasional small payments for completing surveys, writing newspaper articles and occasional media appearances. This has always amounted to a lot less than the declarable figure of EUR 5000 per annum.

With reference to section (F) I do not possess any shares in my portfolio that amount to more than 1% of the issued shares of that company so pending further clarification and guidance from the implementing measures for the MEP code of conduct I do not consider any of my shareholdings to grant me significant influence over the companies where I am a shareholder as part of a broad class of investors.

I employ my wife Dr Silvia Janicinova in a full time capacity as my locally employed Parliamentary Assistant and Office Manager in my London constituency office and who has been in my continuous employment since July 2004 and whose employment is covered by Art 78 which exempts her by way of derogation from the prohibited categories under Art 43 of the Members Statute arrangements for assistants.
