INTERNAL FINANCIAL RULES OF THE EFDD GROUP
ITEM 400

I. General provisions

The Group’s Bureau shall be the budgetary authority.

The Group’s President shall be the authorising officer and shall delegate authorising powers to the Group’s Secretary-General. These powers can be subdelegated.

The Bureau shall appoint a Treasurer and an AIPN from among the members of the Group’s Bureau. Appointment of the Treasurer and AIPN shall be approved by the Group.

II. Adoption of the budget

The Treasurer shall present a proposal for the annual budget to the Bureau.

The budget, as adopted by the Bureau, shall be submitted for the Group’s approval.

Part of the budget shall be set aside for decentralised activities (chapter 7 of the budget), in accordance with the conditions laid down in Article 2.1.10 of the Rules.

All decentralised activities shall require prior authorisation, subject to compliance with the rules in force.

During the course of the financial year, the Treasurer may, if necessary and with the consent of the President, transfer appropriations between chapters and items of the budget.
III. Implementation of the budget

The Treasurer shall be responsible for implementing the budget.

All expenditure must be processed by the authorising officer and the staff members responsible for verifications and initiation tasks. They shall also be responsible for the verifications to be carried out before the issue of payment orders, as stipulated in Articles 2.2.3 and 2.2.4 of the Rules.

The Treasurer shall sign all transfer orders. In case of emergency, the Secretary-General may sign transfers, which must subsequently be countersigned by the Treasurer.

The Secretary-General shall present to the Bureau every three months a report on the use of the appropriations and any transfers of appropriations.

The Group shall not recognise any permanent imprests.

IV. Accounts

The Group’s accounting officer shall be responsible for the Group’s accounts.
