Milda Špėlytė-Letulienė currently works as Attaché for Education and Science at the Permanent Representation of Lithuania to the European Union. Over the past 6 years she has been actively involved in the field of education and science in the European and international contexts in her capacity as senior officer at the Department of International Cooperation at the Ministry of Education and Science of Lithuania. She has also had hands-on experience in higher education, working as teacher at the Department of English Philology in Vilnius University since 2002. She is fluent in English and Russian, has a good command of German and French.