Amendment 1 Recital 13

(13) The measures necessary for the implementation of this Regulation should be adopted in accordance with Council Decision 1999/468/EC of 28 June 1999 laying down the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission. (13) The measures necessary for the implementation of this Regulation should be adopted in accordance with Council Decision 1999/468/EC of 28 June 1999 laying down the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred on the Commission. In particular, the Commission should be empowered to amend the CPA in order to take account of technological or economic developments and align it with other economic and social classifications. Since those measures are of general scope and are designed to amend non-essential essential elements; such measures are referred to in Article 6(2) of this Regulation.

elements of this Regulation or supplement it by the addition of new non-essential elements, they should be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny provided for in Article 5a of Decision 1999/468/EC.

Justification

The implementation measures enlisted in Article 6 are clearly within the scope of measures described in Article 2 of Regulation 1999/468/EC, laying down the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers conferred upon the Commission. In particular, it is appropriate to implement the measures for amending the CPA via the procedure recommended in Article 2.2 of the Regulation 1999/468/EC, which is the regulatory procedure with scrutiny provided for in Article 5a of that Decision.

Amendment 2
Article 1, paragraph 2

2. The term "product" shall mean transportable goods, non transportable goods and services.

2. The term "product" means outputs of economic activities, either goods or services.

Justification

The distinction between "transportable" and "non transportable" goods is obsolete and not always applicable. The proposed amendment better defines the scope of the Regulation.

Amendment 3
Article 4, paragraph 3

3. Member States may use a national classification of products by activity derived from CPA. In such a case, they shall forward to the Commission the drafts defining their national classification. The Commission shall check the conformity of the national classification with paragraph 2 and shall transmit the national classification to the other Member States for information. The Member States' national classifications shall include a table of correspondence between the national classifications and the CPA.

3. Member States may use a national classification of products by activity derived from CPA. In such a case, they shall forward to the Commission the drafts defining their national classification. Within 3 months after receiving a draft, the Commission shall check the conformity of the national classification with paragraph 2 and shall transmit the national classification to the other Member States for information. The Member States' national classifications shall include a table of correspondence between the national classifications and the CPA.

Justification

It is necessary to set a deadline for the reply from the Commission.

Amendment 4
Article 6, paragraph 1, point (a)

(a) decisions required in case of problems arising from implementation of CPA, including the assignment of economic activities to specific classes and

(a) decisions required in case of problems arising from implementation of CPA, including the assignment of products to specific classes and

Justification

Amendment to point 1 is due to the fact that the Regulation refers to classification of products, not of economic activities.

Amendment 5
Article 6, paragraph 2, introductory part

2. The following measures shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 7(3):

2. The following measures designed to amend non-essential elements of this Regulation, including by supplementing it, shall be adopted in accordance with the regulatory procedure with scrutiny referred to in Article 7(3):

Justification

It is necessary to take into account Council Decision 2006/512/EC of 17 July 2006 (OJ L 200 of 22/07/2006) in the article concerning implementation measures, by specifying in detail the scope of the implementing measures to be implemented according to the regulatory procedure with scrutiny.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

I. Legislative background

CPA - Classification of Products by Activity - is a statistical classification used in the European Union when compiling production, consumption, external trade and transport statistics. It is the European version of the CPC - Central Product Classification – developed by the United Nations and based on the physical characteristics of goods or on the nature of the services rendered. CPA categorises all products that can be the object of domestic or international transactions, or that can be entered into stocks. Although both CPA and CPC serve the same purpose, there is one major distinction between them: whilst the CPC is merely a recommended classification, the CPA is a binding legislation. Moreover, CPA is directly linked to NACE, the EU classification of economic activities.

CPA was established in 1993 by Regulation 3696/93/EEC, as part of the project of harmonising economic statistics, and no significant amendments were made ever since. The current proposal is a first major revision of CPA, to take into account the economic changes that Europe underwent during last 15 years and to follow revised international classifications to which it is closely linked. In March 2006, the United Nations Statistical Commission has approved the revised classification structure elaborated by the Expert Group on International Economic and Social Classifications, as the international standard for activity classifications known as ISIC rev. 4, which was subsequently followed by revision of the NACE classification - “NACE Rev. 2” to be applied in 2008. The update of CPA classification would therefore be perfectly in line with the Community’s and global strategy in economic statistics.

II. Objectives of the proposal

As already mentioned briefly above, the overall objective is to put the statistical classifications in line with technological development and structural changes of the European economy since the beginning of 1990s. Emergence of a wide range of products with no assigned codes (like for example IT Services, telecommunication services, or waste management services) could lead to irrelevance of statistical information. Therefore, an updated, uniform, single, comparable and reliable framework of statistical classifications needs to be put in place not only to overhaul the Community statistics, but also to contribute by so doing to the better economic governance and fulfilment of the Lisbon goals.

As with other statistical legislation, it has to be underlined that the establishment of a revised CPA classification will not automatically oblige Member States to publish, collect or supply data. But only if they use classifications linked to the Community classification it will be possible to provide integrated information with the characteristics required for the effective management of the internal market.

III. Scope of the proposal and its structure

The proposal is a classification of products, to mean a classification of outputs of economic activities, either goods or services. It will include six levels of headings, which makes it more detailed comparing to its UN counterpart. Some differences exist as well in the structure, as the European approach assumed that a central product classification should be structured according to the principle of economic origin, with the framework established by the NACE classification. The first four digits – with few exceptions – are codes of activities (NACE) which produced the output, while the last two digits define the category and subcategory of the product. All products are placed in one and not more than one economic activity of NACE, however a detailed link between the two can only be established to a certain degree. This principle remains unchanged since the last CPA version in force.

Member States may use the CPA for aggregated or detailed national adaptation based on the subcategories of the CPA. The drafts of those national classifications of products by activity derived from the CPA have to be forwarded to the Commission for conformity check and further distribution to other EU Member States.

VI. Rapporteur's position

Having adopted the NACE Rev. 2 proposal to which the European Parliament tabled no objections, we can do nothing but agree on the revision of the CPA Regulation in order to avoid inconsistencies and incompatibilities of the existing statistic classifications system and thereby to enhance harmonization among various fields of economic statistics and to strengthen the role of national accounts as an instrument for the coordination of economic policies it being the most reliable indicator of the conditions of the European economies.

The Rapporteur welcomes as well the recent agreement on the comitology issues and the Council's willingness to incline to the Parliament's legal interpretation of the procedures for the exercise of implementing powers, as laid down in the Council Decision 1999/468/EC of 28 June 1999, amended with the Decision of 17 July 2006 (2006(512)EC). Specifically, the Commission should be empowered to modify the CPA classification to take account of technological or economic developments which changes will not tend to amend the non-essential elements of the Regulation and will therefore fall under the regulatory procedure with scrutiny.

The amendments tabled to this Report are in line with the modifications of the Eurostat Task Force and the Working Party and your Rapporteur recommends to adopt them in a single reading procedure.
