OPTIONAL INFORMATION
COMMENTS	The Renew Europe Group in the European Parliament and its Delegation for the Pacific, Africa, and the Caribbean, RENEWPAC, hosted its Annual Conference in Marrakech, Morocco, from 4 to 6 December 2022. This was met with messages of enthusiasm from both European and African liberal families. The Conference had the presence of high-level guests in the form of African ministers, party leaders and a large number of our European and African political partners. In the midst of this conference, and as can be inferred from the program enclosed, there were some meals provided for by third parties. Although for the other ones the Renew Europe Group has proof that they were below the threshold of article 5 of the Code of Conduct for Members of the European Parliament with respect to financial interests and conflicts of interest, for the particular lunch of December 5th there has been no receipt provided for by the Region of Marrakech Tensift Local authority. Hence, although it is very likely to be below the threshold, I would like to declare it.
