Don't miss the opportunity to hear from newly elected Member of the European Parliament and Harvard Kennedy School alumnus (2003) Sergey Lagodinsky. Learn from his insights and expertise on climate change, transatlantic relations as well as the law and politics of diversity and integration.

Lagodinsky serves as Vice Chair of the Legal Affairs Committee of the European Parliament, which on September 25, 2019 took the unprecedented measure of rejecting two EU Commissioner-designates over concerns of conflict of interest.

About

The Guido Goldman Lecture on Germany was established to honor the contributions of the Co-Founding Director of the Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies, who was instrumental in promoting the study of Germany and transatlantic relations at Harvard.

This event is part of Worldwide Week at Harvard, which will showcase the breadth of Harvard's global engagement from October 6-12, 2019.
