

Inaugural Ceremony

2023 Summer School for Female Leadership in the Digital Age

Sunday 24th July. Umbracle, City of Arts and Sciences (Av. Professor López Piñero 5, Valencia)

➤ 19.00-19.45 Arrival, Registrations & Welcome Cocktail

➤ 19.45-21.00 Formal Ceremony

-  Welcome Words by Berta Herrero, Director, Schools for Female Leadership in the Digital Age
-  Opening Address by Mary Coughlan, former Deputy Prime Minister of Ireland
-  Speech by Inmaculada Rodríguez-Piñero, Member of the European Parliament
-  Keynote Speech by Ms. Danuta Hübner, Member of the European Parliament; former EU Commissioner for Trade & Regional Policy
-  Speech by Josianne Cutajar, Member of the European Parliament
-  Closing Address by Violeta Bulc, former EU Commissioner for Transport; former Deputy Prime Minister of Slovenia
-  M. C. – Isabelle Kumar, News Anchor (Euronews, CNN).

➤ 21.00-22.30 Networking Dinner

The 29 Future Leaders

The Summer School will host 29 young female students: 27 representing a Member State of the European Union each, one representing the “Western Balkans 6” and one from Ukraine, thanks to our partnership with the European Training Foundation (ETF).

The students are between the ages of 18 and 24 and come from diverse cultural and educational backgrounds, bringing a variety of interests to the table.

Age	23
	21
	20
	19
	24
	18
Studies	Business, Management, Entrepreneurship
	Medicine, Biological Sciences
	Engineering
	Politics, Law, Sustainability Policy
	Mathematics, Physics
	Computer Science
	Economics
	International Relations
	Chemistry
Interests	New Technologies
	Women Empowerment
	Public Speaking
	Sustainability
	Coding
	Entrepreneurship
	Global Politics
	Healthcare