FURTHER INFORMATION FROM THE ORGANIZERS:

The key theme of the conference is Hungary's foreign policy orientation: Momentum is committed to Europe and our Western alliance, in stark opposition to Viktor Orbán's policy of treating "Brussels" as the enemy while cozying up to Eastern dictators.

We would ask Mr Verhofstadt to situate our Hungarian debate into a broader European (or even global) context–

- How does Europe's future look like in the changing world order? How should it look like?
- Where do you see Hungary's place in Europe?

As co-chair of the Conference on the Future of Europe, as well as an unparalleled champion of European integration, his voice will be extremely valuable, and we welcome any further insights he deems important to share with the audience of mostly Momentum's supporters and allies.

The address should be 15 to 20 minutes.
