Report of the checking of accounts of Ciaran Cuffe, Member of the European Parliament, for the period from 01.01.2020 to 31.12.2020

Order and order execution

Account check on the use of the General Expenditure Allowance.

The account statements of the separately managed bank account and the complete receipts were used as preparation documents and provided to me by Ciaran's employee, Zoe Ledwith.

The recording of the individual issues was carried out with the help of electronic data processing using excel software. The verification measures were carried out to access the correctness and traceability of the expenditure.

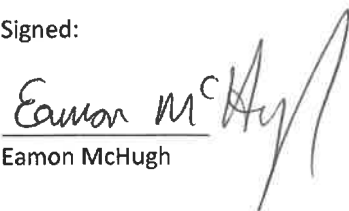

Confirmation

After checking the accounts, I can confirm that the use of the GEA complies with the requirements of the European Parliament. The expenses were only used in connection with the exercise of the mandate.

I also confirm that MEP Ciaran Cuffe did not receive any personal benefit from the general office expenditure.

The expenses were precisely recorded and accounted for.

Eamon McHugh
