

European Charlemagne Youth Prize: meet the 2022 winners

The winners of the 2022 European Charlemagne Youth Prize

A Portuguese project on cross-border cooperation through music has won the 2022 European Charlemagne Youth Prize.

Every year national and European juries select a project from each EU country. The 26 national winners were invited to the award ceremony in Aachen on 24 May, where the three European winners were announced.

European winners

The first prize is €7,500, second prize €5,000 and third prize €2,500.

The first prize went to “Orquestra Sem Fronteiras” [EN: Orchest Without Borders] from Portugal, which promotes cross-border cooperation between Portugal and Spain, through the music of young talents living in both countries, with the purpose of mitigating social and cultural inequalities.

- Website
- Facebook
- Instagram
- YouTube

Second prize went to the Czech “Politika (nejen) pro mladé” [EN: Politics (Not Only) for the Youth] project, which brings together young politicians from across the political spectrum to debate politics, democracy and human rights, striving for an informed and active young civil society.

Website

Facebook

Discord

Instagram

YouTube

Third prize went to the German project “Ukrainian Vibes - European Public Sphere”, organised through Democracy International. The project, which ran from April to October 2021, brought people from 36 countries together for virtual discussions on democracy, development and European integration, highlighting EU-Ukraine relations. They published some of the proposals generated on the COFOE platform.

Website

Facebook

Instagram

Twitter

YouTube

All the winners from this year's European Charlemagne Youth Prize

National winners

Find out more about the 2022 national winners.

European Charlemagne Youth Prize

The prize, jointly awarded by the European Parliament and the International Charlemagne Prize Foundation, is open to initiatives by young people aged 16-30 involved in projects that promote European and international understanding. Since 2008, more than 4,650 projects have competed for the prize.

A video of the ceremony will be available on the Youtube channel of the Charlemagne Prize Academy.

Follow the Prize on social media with the official hashtag #ECYP2022

European Charlemagne Youth Prize

Facebook

Parliament's youth outreach unit on Twitter

Parliament's youth outreach unit on Instagram

Summaries of the 2022 national winners' projects

Website of the European Charlemagne Youth Prize