

The Week Ahead 01 – 07 July 2019

Parliament's constitutive session

Conference of Presidents/Donald Tusk. EP President Tajani and group leaders (Conference of Presidents) will meet on Sunday at noon with European Council President Donald Tusk ahead of the summit. EP President Tajani will address heads of state or government at 18.00 and hold a press conference at around 18.30.

Constitution of the new Parliament. The first session of the new Parliament will be opened on Tuesday at 10.00h. MEPs will then select eight tellers who will oversee the election of the President and set the deadline for the submission of candidacies for Parliament's Presidency. There will be no other plenary business until Wednesday morning.

Election of President of the European Parliament. Parliament will elect its President for the next two-and-a-half years (half the legislature) on Wednesday morning at 09.00h. Candidates for the presidency may be put forward either by a political group or by 1/20th of Members. The election is held by secret ballot. To be elected, a candidate must win an absolute majority of the valid votes cast, i.e. 50% plus one. (Wednesday)

Election of Vice-Presidents and Quaestors. After the election of the President, Parliament will elect the other two main political bodies necessary for the functioning of Parliament's activities: the 14 Vice-Presidents and then the five Quaestors. (Wednesday and Thursday)

Forming Parliament's committees. Parliament will vote on the numerical composition of its standing and sub committees at around 13.00h. Nominations will be decided by the political groups and announced in plenary later that day. The committees will convene the following week for their constitutive meetings to elect their Chairs and Vice-Chairs. (Wednesday)

MEPs to debate outcome of the June 2019 European summits. MEPs will debate the results of the 20-21 and 30 June summits with European Council President Donald Tusk and Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker on Thursday morning.

Pre-session press briefing. The EP Press Service will hold a press briefing at 09.30 on Tuesday in the Daphne Caruana Galizia Press conference room, Strasbourg.
