The Week Ahead 02 – 08 May 2022

Plenary session, Strasbourg

War against Ukraine. On Wednesday morning, MEPs will discuss how to deal with the social and economic consequences for the EU of Russia's war in Ukraine with the Council and Commission, and how to reinforce the EU's capacity to act. On Tuesday afternoon, they will debate the impact of the war on the EU's transport and tourism sectors, as well as the EU's preparedness for cyber-attacks. On Thursday, MEPs will discuss and vote on how to protect women who are fleeing Ukraine from violence and sexual exploitation.

Future of Europe. As the Conference on the Future of Europe approaches its conclusion, MEPs will assess its Plenary's recommendations and the overall process in a debate on Tuesday afternoon. They are expected to stress that the process to change the EU's founding documents should be activated in order to endow the EU with the competences to act on the proposed new policy areas.

Mario Draghi/This is Europe. At 11.30 on Tuesday, Italian Prime Minister Mario Draghi will address MEPs and present his views on the state of the EU and his vision for its future. His speech will be followed by a round of contributions from political group speakers.

Common charger. Parliament is set to give a green light to negotiations on a common charger to help reduce e-waste and make charging portable electronic devices easier. The new rules would mean consumers no longer need a new charger and cable every time they purchase a new device, and can use the same ones for all of their small and medium-sized electronic gadgets.

EU elections. MEPs are set to adopt their legislative proposal for a new European Electoral Act, aiming to turn the 27 national elections into a real, single European election with common minimum standards, a European Union-wide constituency, and gender balance. (debate Monday, vote Tuesday)

Rule of law in Hungary and Poland. On Tuesday, MEPs will debate the latest events regarding democracy and fundamental rights in Hungary and Poland, and the EU's action to protect its shared values. A resolution will be put to the vote on Thursday.

Artificial intelligence. MEPs will debate and vote on Tuesday on the final report by the Special Committee on Artificial Intelligence in a Digital Age. The text says the EU must set global AI standards and unlock its enormous potential to address challenges in the fields of health, the environment and climate change. A press conference will take place at 16.30 in Parliament's Daphne Caruana Galizia press room.

Media freedom. To mark World Press Freedom Day on Tuesday 3 May, MEPs will discuss with the European Commission how to address the threats faced by journalists and enhance media freedom. The same day, Parliament will launch the second edition of the Daphne Caruana Galizia Prize for Journalism to reward outstanding journalistic work reflecting EU values.

President's Diary. EP President Roberta Metsola will meet Commission President Ursula von der Leyen on Monday. On Tuesday, she will have a bilateral meeting with Italy's Prime Minister Mario Draghi before the latter addresses MEPs in the chamber. On Thursday, President Metsola will travel to Rome for an official visit (for which the detailed programme will be announced soon). On Friday, she will be in Florence and give the opening speech on "A Europe Fit for the Next Generation?" at the European University Institute's State of the Union event.

Last-minute briefing. On Monday at 16.30, Parliament's Spokesperson will hold a press briefing on the plenary session, which starts at 17:00. Political group briefings will take place on Tuesday morning.
