

* All times in CET

What should the priorities of the EU be for the years to come? How do we recover from the crisis and prepare for future challenges? Share your questions and comments with key players in the European Parliament, and tune into our live programme.

State of the European Union

On the eve of the most important EU debate of the year listen to the intervention of European Parliament Vice-President Katarina Barley.

Discover the heart of European democracy

What can you expect from the State of the European Union? How does parliamentary democracy work in the European Union? What is the role of the Members of the European Parliament? Get up to speed with this quick catch-up session.

A word from the European Parliament's political groups

Hear about the upcoming priorities of the political groups.

Youth for a better Europe

Young people are not just the future, they are the present. As the main drivers of change, they deserve a seat at the table. Ahead of the State of the European Union debate, join Othmar Karas, European Parliament Vice-President in charge of communication, in listening to the ideas of young people for a better Europe.

European Parliament's priorities for a better future

Citizens' priorities are the European Parliament's priorities. Follow the discussion with Committee Chairs on major current topics in the European Parliament.