European Parliament resolution on Eritrea: case of Dawit Isaak

The European Parliament,

- Having regard to Articles 2, 3, 6(3) and 21(2)(a) and (b) of the Treaty on the European Union,
  - Having regard to Article 9 of the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement as revised 2005 (the Cotonou Agreement), to which Eritrea is signatory,
  - Having regard to the Declaration by the Council Presidency on political prisoners in Eritrea, 22 September 2008; and to subsequent Council and Commission statements on Eritrea and the human rights situation since then,
  - Having regard to its previous resolutions on Eritrea and in particular those concerning human rights and the case of Mr Dawit Isaak,
  - Having regard to Rule 122 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. Whereas the EU is strongly and clearly committed to the protection of the human rights as a fundamental value; and whereas press freedom and freedom of speech are among those universal rights;
- B. Whereas the rule of law is a principle which must never be compromised;
- C. Whereas Swedish citizen Mr Dawit Isaak has on 23 September 2011 spent 10 full years imprisoned, without charges, trial or legal hearing, internationally considered a prisoner of conscience;
- D. Whereas a legal opinion presented to the European Parliament President in September 2010 underlines the fact that EU has a legal and moral obligation to protect its citizens in accordance with the European Convention of Human Rights and as established by case law in the European Court of Justice;
1. Deplores the human rights situation in Eritrea; notably the lack of freedom of expression and the continued existence of political prisoners held in contradiction to the principle of rule of law;
  2. Regrets that Mr Dawit Isaak has not yet regained his freedom, deeply regrets that he has by now had to spend ten years as prisoner of conscience, fears for the life of Mr Dawit Isaak under the harsh conditions of Eritrean prison, without access to necessary health care;

3. Emphasises the seriousness and urgency of the matter;
4. Reiterates its calls on the State of Eritrea to immediately release all political prisoners including Mr Dawit Isaak; demands that medical and legal assistance is immediately extended to these and other prisoners by the State of Eritrea; demands furthermore access for EU or EU Member State representatives to Mr Dawit Isaak in order to establish his needs in terms of health care and legal support;
5. Calls on the Council to urgently consider targeted sanctions on relevant Eritrean authorities including restrictions for President Afewerki on travelling to the EU;
6. Calls on the Council to ensure that EU development assistance does not benefit the government of Eritrea but is strictly targeted towards the needs of the Eritrean people;
7. Calls on the High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy to map all efforts by the EU or its Member States for the release of Mr Dawit Isaak until present date and to present in public the results in order to increase transparency and accountability on this matter;
8. Appeals to the African Union as a partner to the EU and with a firm commitment to the universal values of democracy and human rights to step up its actions regarding the regrettable situation in Eritrea and work together with the EU for the release of Mr Dawit Isaak and other political prisoners;
9. Follows with interest the judicial process of a Habeas Corpus appeal raised in the Eritrean Supreme Court, July 2011 on the case of Mr Dawit Isaak;
10. Extends its heartfelt support and sympathy to the families of these political prisoners;
11. Instructs its President to forward this resolution to the Council, the Commission, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Vice President of the European Commission, the parliaments and governments of the Member States, the parliament and government of Eritrea, the Pan-African Parliament, the African Union and the Council of Europe.
